

Job Offer – Food Serving Coordinator

The Loaded Ladle, a student-run food service under the umbrella of the Dalhousie Student Union (DSU), is looking for a food serving coordinator. The Loaded Ladle serves weekly vegan lunches to approximately 200 students and community members at Dalhousie University as a healthy and sustainable alternative to corporate food on campus. The organization also provides food for events such as Dalhousie's Alt 101 Radical Frosh, as well as demos and solidarity events. For more information about the Loaded Ladle and to see our mission statement, please refer to our website:

<http://www.theloadedladle.blogspot.com/>

Job Description:

The position involves participation in collective meetings; kitchen work such as day-coordinating, food acquisition and preparation, cooking, clean-up, working with the Dalhousie Student Union (DSU), and coordinating volunteers.

Requirements:

- The Loaded Ladle is run on a consensus basis. Applicants must be willing to work within a collective structure.
- Self-motivated/self-directed
- Strong organizational skills
- Knowledge and passion for issues of food sovereignty and alternative foods
- Ability to work in English

Assets:

- Enthusiasm for and experience with working closely with others
- Dedication to or involvement in social justice causes
- Cooking experience (vegetarian and/or vegan, especially in large quantities)
- Driver's license valid in Nova Scotia

Remuneration: $10.75/hour, 28 weeks (14 weeks per semester)

Hours: 5 hours per week.

Start date: August 29, 2011

End date: April 16, 2012

The deadline for applications is Monday, August 1, 2011

C.V.s and cover letters can be sent via email to ladle.action@lists.riseup.net

Confidentiality:

Any and all personal information about the applicants obtained by any means, including but not limited to: resumes, cover letters, interviews, or any other parts of the hiring procedure will remain confidential to the members of the hiring committee only. Confidentiality will remain at all times, including after the hiring has been completed.